Organizational History:

The 325th Field Artillery Association was created as a way for members of the 325th Field Artillery to keep in contact. The group served in World War I during 1918 and 1919. Members included Wendell Willkie, presidential nominee in 1940, Forest Harness, Walter E. Treaner, and Charles A. Halleck.

Scope and Content Note:

This collection contains information from the 325th Field Artillery Association mostly concerning their reunion in 1940. The materials are organized by type and then by date.
